

Cancer Symptom Science NewsLetter

March, 2024

See you soon

this time in Washington, D.C.!

Dear colleagues,

As April arrives and spring unfolds, it's the perfect time to nurture the growth of GRASS (Global Research Alliance for Symptom Science)! Following up on our December Newsletter, we've arranged a meeting space during the ONS congress (April 24–28, 2024) in Washington, D.C.

Mark your agendas and join us for what promises to be an engaging and productive exchange of ideas!

Wednesday, April 24th, 17:30 EST

Walter E. Washington Convention Center
-East Overlook Room
(Across the hall from Room 202)

Zoom Meeting ID: 912 1149 8697
Password in the outlook invitation

Preliminary Agenda:

- I. Welcome and Introduction
- II. Review of Mission and Vision
- III. White paper update
- IV. Developing a leadership structure
- V. Developing a strategic plan
- VI. Planning for the next scientific sessions

Let's come together to continue building GRASS and cultivate a future of collaborations!

Warm regards,

The Cancer Symptom Science Meeting OC
